

Cheddo's Little Basket

Akram Az

Cheddo's basket was meant for apples. Along the village lane, he found a feather, a round button and a leaf shaped like a mitten. Naeli watched him arrange them on a bench. Cheddo put everything back, leaving one empty space. He looked down the lane. The basket wasn't quite finished yet.

What curious thing could fit in the empty space?

You don't have to answer.
